○“The game I wanted to play” The staff reviewer from Game We Forum said: “The principle of this game draws upon the popular ‘story-driven action RPG’ that exists in the smartphone games. We play as a character that has fallen from grace, and have to travel the Lands Between where a mysterious force of darkness reigns. What kind of challenges await us? It is wonderful what the developer did with the story-driven elements while keeping a good sense of action.” ○“Fun, Exhilarating, and Encompassing” The staff reviewer from Dengeki Nintendo World said: “It has all the elements you could ever ask for in an RPG: challenging and interesting battles, an enjoyable story, and a fantasy setting where you can create your own character. The game is full of charm and has the unique feel of a complete game. The game I wanted to play has arrived.” ○“Carrying an excellent balance between the action and story, combat and evasion, and system and creativity” The staff reviewer from Dengeki PlayStation said: “The genre that is dominated by action RPGs is, by now, so popular and common that the game cannot be called an ‘RPG’ per se. However, it is still a story-driven action RPG that hits the mood of the genre and incorporates several aspects of a game. The key is in the quality of the game balance between the action and the story. Furthermore, there are many amusing scenes that touch your heart. It is fun, exhilarating, and encompassing.” ○“Excellently Made” The staff reviewer from Game We Forum said: “The game makes use of the premise of ‘ending a streak’ and utilizes the storytelling as a character-building method. To put it simply, it is an interesting and fun game.” ○“A Never-ending Story: You can progress up until you obtain 100%” The staff reviewer from Dengeki PlayStation said: “The best about this game is that you can progress the story until you obtain 100% in all the battles. The plot is exciting, and you can freely progress through the game even after 100% is obtained. It is very simple, but the game is fun.” ○“The Game That You Want To bff6bb2d33
