The game is a pure hack'n'slash stealth game where you'll have to move fast and keep quiet! You'll be using a toolset to get from room to room, avoiding the the alien guards, with stealth being your key to success. All of this, combined with amazing music that will take you away from reality, and an amazing art style. The story itself is a parody to some of the most famous movies and games from the 80's and 90's like Aladdin, James bond, watch dogs, etc. so it's perfect to get you into the 80's mood, and for some fun and pure gaming! Feedback is highly appreciated so feel free to contact me. Joe B and Jake have been planning on going on a camping trip for a long time. No, not that camping trip; this camping trip is the one they were going to take last summer, the one where they drove to summer camp in the desert and stayed with friends. But this camping trip is coming along, they're almost done packing, and the camping trip will be so fun! Yay! But their mommy has to agree to it first. Oh wait. No. Wrong game. Okay, we can probably assume that this is going to be a masochistic game. But at least it's short. Like, we can finish it in an hour. This is not like the other ones where we can get stuck for hours on end. But at least the controls should be tolerable. Once again, though, this is an ass-painting exercise. First of all, notice how often you need to draw the bush on the front of your pants. Second, notice how many times you need to restart the level. Do they intend for us to play through this level over and over again? Why don't they just kill us after a certain amount of time? "In case you're wondering why it keeps getting more and more painful for you over and over again, this is because the point of the game is to make you literally play a recording of your own scream as long as possible, you pathetic, pathetic, pathetic waste of life." Yes, this is a game where the main character takes the form of an alien having sex with a person who is a cat. That is happening right now. Do you think it's funny? Oh no, it's your own cat you're doing c9d1549cdd
